According to the Chinese approach to health, the ingredients are known to help with appetite, proper digestion and assimilation. This product aids in clearing the liver of toxins that manifest as skin outbreaks. Formula A is specifically designed to reduce eczema, rashes and hives and may help with diaper rash, psoriasis, shingles, boils and eczema. Formula B is designed to reduce acne in teens or adults. Diet changes such as avoiding fried foods and spicy foods are very beneficial by putting less strain on the liver. A good intake of water, lots of fresh air and exercise will also aid the liver.	白芍
