According to the Chinese approach to health, the ingredients are known to relieve congestion and environmental discomfort. Breathing normally with ease is a vital aspect of good health. When the lungs are working efficiently, all oxygen needs are met and the mind is alert. When lung congestion occurs, all areas of the body can suffer. This product may be helpful for individuals with sinus conditions and allergies due to snow mold, pollen and other airborne pathogens.
