

For many years, I have been having nervous problems of the emotional kind. The pressures of parenting and of personal, social dysfunction had taken me to where my thoughts and emotions would not separate any more. Each thought carried a large baggage of emotions from hype to fire.

I met Joseph Tsong and he suggested that I try the number 28 from the Natural Herbal Products Inc.. I took 2 capsules at 2:10 pm. At 2:30 pm it was as if I had walked out of a dark room full emotional stalagmites and stalactites, and into a mildly lit room of ease. For the first time in years, I was able to think without being overwhelmed with emotional disturbance. The number 28 returned to me my capacity to rationalize my thought process. After five or six months, I stopped using it and only once in a while, I feel the need for it and sure enough, it provides me with a settlement of my own handling as opposed to being numbed out of my condition.

After nearly 2 years, I have learn to know how to use other products that are returning me to a quality of health that baffles all who know me personally, as I have been very hard and quite abusive on my body for several decades and yet, at 47, I am getting younger by the day...so much so that I am learning all that I can about Traditional Chinese Medicine and all that helps my body to heal and to maintain itself in good health and happiness...

Truly, Benoit Couture
